

Dear FCC,
This country is great and good because of COMPETITION ! I love my XM Service and find it interesting that Comglomerates can basically limit competition by changing rules regarding broadcasts.....

I support the advancement of technology and hope the FCC does not limit companies like XM Radio from broadcasting. I travel throught the midwest and enjoy the ability to receive news, weahter and traffic on my XM Radio.

Please let them keep delivering these services to consumers like me.

Ben Rucka
Franklin, WI